COCO SOLEA

A modern interior scene with warm, golden-hour lighting. On the left, a dining table with a thick, light-colored stone top sits on a tall, fluted wooden pedestal. Two contemporary chairs with light-colored upholstered seats and dark wooden frames are tucked under the table. Above the table, two woven, cage-like pendant lamps hang from thin black cords. On the table, a small, light-colored ceramic vase holds a sprig of greenery. In the center, a long, low wooden bench with thick, rustic legs sits against a textured, light-colored wall. On the bench, a stack of books is topped with a small, dark, metallic object. Above the bench, a large, rectangular screen is mounted, displaying the 'MARVEL STUDIOS' logo in a bold, sans-serif font. The 'MARVEL' part of the logo is white on an orange rectangular background, while 'STUDIOS' is white with orange horizontal lines above and below it. To the right of the bench, two large, rustic, earthenware vases of different shapes hold dried, light-colored flowers. A large window with a dark wooden frame and multiple panes is on the far right, letting in bright light and showing a glimpse of a bookshelf and a sofa in the background. The floor is made of light-colored wood planks.
